

NRCA Safety Manual
 Chapter Twenty Six:
 Respiratory Protection Checklist

NATIONAL ROOFING CONTRACTORS ASSOCIATION Y CNA COMMERCIAL INSURANCE

	Pre-job
1.	Are concentrations of airborne contaminants on this jobsite anticipated to exceed OSHA-permissible exposure limits (PELs)?	Y	N
2.	Without regard to PELs of airborne contaminants, will workers be required by your company to wear respirators or filtering face pieces (dust masks)?	Y	N
3.	If the answer to #1 or #2 is yes, does your company have a written respiratory protection program?	Y	N
4.	Have workers who will be required to wear respirators or filtering face pieces had medical evaluations to determine their fitness to wear either one?	Y	N
5.	Have workers who will be required to wear respirators or filtering face pieces had training in fit, usage, limitations, inspection and maintenance of that equipment?	Y	N
	Job-in-progress
6.	Are evaluations made of provisions of a written respiratory protection program during the course of the project to determine proper implementation?	Y	N
	Post-job
7.	Have medical evaluation records related to a determination of a	Y	N

	worker's fitness to wear a respirator been retained?
8.	Have program evaluations been incorporated into the written respiratory program?	Y	N