

NRCA Safety Manual
Chapter Three:
Bloodborne Pathogens Checklist

NATIONAL ROOFING CONTRACTORS ASSOCIATION | CNA COMMERCIAL INSURANCE

1.	Is a written exposure control plan designed to eliminate or minimize employee exposure to bloodborne pathogens in place?	Y	N
2.	Has personal protective equipment (PPE) been selected that will eliminate or minimize exposure to bloodborne pathogens?	Y	N
3.	Are all workers trained in procedures to follow should an exposure incident occur?	Y	N
4.	Is emergency contact information accessible in the event of an incident involving exposure to blood or other infectious material?	Y	N
5.	Is PPE inspected and repaired or replaced to maintain its effectiveness against worker exposure to bloodborne pathogens?	Y	N
6.	Are worksite procedures in place that provide for prompt and safe disposal of potentially infectious clothing, bandages and other materials and decontamination of exposed surfaces or objects?	Y	N