

Nationally Recognized Testing Laboratory March 15, 2013 Stakeholder Meeting
Teleconference / WebEx Participation Instructions

All NRTL stakeholders registered to attend the meeting via teleconference may view slides and other visual aids presented during the meeting via a WebEx web conference solution. During the meeting, all teleconference lines will be muted, and teleconference attendees will not be able to participate verbally during the meeting. Teleconference attendees will be able to submit comments and/or questions during the meeting via the WebEx chat feature. OSHA will address WebEx communications during the meeting as time permits.

Teleconference Information

To access the audio portion of the meeting, participants should dial: 1-866-793-8050 (international callers dial: +1.203.480.8163) no earlier than 15 minutes prior to the meeting and use participant code 2364756. Instructions for dialing into the teleconference, including instructions for international callers, can be found at:
