

Confined Space Awareness Quiz

(Please circle either True or False)

Student Name: _____

Date of Training: _____

Instructor Name: _____

1. Air becomes asphyxiating when there is not enough Oxygen to breathe.

True or False

2. A confined space is considered a space that is large enough to enter, has limited or restricted entries or exits and is not designed for continuous occupancy.

True or False

3. Confined spaces are dangerous because they could: contain hazards in the air, trap you inside the space, contain slip and fall hazards and contain hazards that you might be unable to see.

True or False

4. Hazards in the air of confined spaces can be: asphyxiating, toxic, flammable and explosive.

True or False

5. Mechanical equipment could accidentally restart in a confined space thus creating a safety hazard within the confined space.

True or False

6. Excessive noise can be a possible hazard in a confined space.

True or False

7. Flammable or explosive atmospheres contain gases, vapors or dusts in concentrations great enough to ignite or combust.

True or False

“This material was produced under Grant SH-21000-10-60-F-29 from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor. It does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the U.S. Department of Labor, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.”

Confined Space Awareness Quiz

(Please circle either True or False)

8. Examples of engulfment hazards include, soil around an excavation, grain in a silo, and powdered material in a bin.
- True or False
9. It is Never OK for an untrained worker to enter a confined space?
- True or False
10. You see that both workers have collapsed. You would call for help, then go in.
- True or False
11. Of the people that die each year form confined space incidents, many of those are people trying to rescue injured entrants?
- True or False
12. Grain silos are not confined spaces.
- True or False
13. A permit required confined space does not require a permit to be filled out and posted if you are only going right in and right back out.
- True or False
14. A non-permit confined space is a confined space that does not contain or have the potential to contain any hazard capable of causing death or serious physical harm.
- True or False
15. If you have concerns about confined spaces you should report your concerns immediately to management within your facility.
- True or False