

Timber Products Manufacturers Association

Sawmills – Module 1 – Worksheet

Safety – A process for reducing risk and _____ by effectively managing the _____ of _____, _____ and _____.

Incident – An _____ that happens after an _____ or both that interrupts the normal progress of an activity and may result in injury or damage.

Hazard - _____

The two major types of hazard are

Unsafe _____ And Unsafe _____

#1 Potential for injury in the Log Yard

Being _____ or material

What you can do to avoid being struck by equipment

- Knowing and understanding the _____ at the log yard are important to your safety.
- Always make _____ with equipment operators before approaching.
- Be alert for _____ and intersections.

What you can do to avoid being caught between

- _____ of any log handling process such as, transporting, sorting, rolling out or stacking.
- If climbing a log deck, check for _____.
 - Is the _____ solid and stable?
 - Have any of the logs _____?
 - Have there been any _____ changes in the _____ that may cause the bark to slough off enough to cause movement?

Timber Products Manufacturers Association

What you can do to avoid falling to a lower level

- Ensure _____ are in good condition
- Maintain _____ when mounting or dismounting
- Ensure the _____ of the _____ has not changed before _____

What you can do to avoid striking against something

- _____ in the direction of travel
- Check the _____ before climbing
- Be alert to _____ conditions