

Evaluation Form Level 2

Date:

Topic: Confined Spaces

Company's name:

Training location:

Trainee: a) Worker b) Employer

Trainer:

1. A confined space is considered a space that is large enough to enter, has limited or restricted entries or exits and is not designed for continuous occupancy.
True or False
2. Hazards in the air of confined spaces can be: asphyxiating, toxic, flammable and explosive.
True or False
3. Mechanical equipment could accidentally restart in a confined space thus creating a safety hazard within the confined space.
True or False
4. Flammable or explosive atmospheres contain gases, vapors or dusts in concentrations great enough to ignite or combust.
True or False
5. It is Never OK for an untrained worker to enter a confined space?
True or False
6. You see that both workers have collapsed. You would call for help, then go in.
True or False
7. Of the people that die each year form confined space incidents, many of those are people trying to rescue injured entrants?
True or False
8. Grain silos are not confined spaces.
True or False
9. A permit required confined space does not require a permit to be filled out and posted if you are only going right in and right back out.
True or False
10. A non-permit confined space is a confined space that does not contain or have the potential to contain any hazard capable of causing death or serious physical harm.
True or False