

Chemical Safety Training

Pre-Test

1. If you see this picture on a chemical label, it means the chemical can cause immediate health effects.
 True
 False
 I'm not sure
2. Employers must inform their employees of work areas where hazardous chemicals are present.
 True
 False
 I'm not sure
3. A Safety Data Sheet (SDS) must be readily accessible to all employees for every chemical found in their work place.
 True
 False
 I'm not sure
4. Safety Data Sheets (SDSs) must describe emergency and first-aid procedures in the event of exposure.
 True
 False
 I'm not sure
5. Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) is the most effective method for controlling a hazard.
 True
 False
 I'm not sure

This material was produced under grant number SH-31179-SH7 from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor. It does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the U.S. Department of Labor, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.

Chemical Safety Training

Post-Test

1. All employees should have access to a Safety Data Sheet (SDS) for every chemical found in their work place.
 True
 False
 I'm not sure
2. Employees must be informed by their employers of work areas where hazardous chemicals are present.
 True
 False
 I'm not sure
3.
This pictogram indicates that the chemical can cause immediate health effects.
 True
 False
 I'm not sure
4. The most effective method for controlling a hazard is the use of Personal Protective Equipment (PPE).
 True
 False
 I'm not sure
5. The emergency and first-aid procedures for a chemical exposure must be described on the chemical's Safety Data Sheets (SDSs).
 True
 False
 I'm not sure

This material was produced under grant number SH-31179-SH7 from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor. It does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the U.S. Department of Labor, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.

This material was produced under grant number SH-31179-SH7 from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor. It does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the U.S. Department of Labor, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.