

Powered Industrial Trucks Post-Test

Name: _____ Date: _____

Answer the following questions.

True False

- _____ _____ 1. Anyone can just jump on a forklift and take right off. It is not much different than driving a car!
- _____ _____ 2. If the break area is a long way off, it is OK to let someone ride on the lift with you.
- _____ _____ 3. If there isn't enough room on the lift, they can ride on the forks.
- _____ _____ 4. If I can't see around the load I can lean over to one side and keep a clear view of travel.
- _____ _____ 5. Powered Industrial Trucks should be inspected at least once a day.
- _____ _____ 6. If the brakes on the lift are bad you can still drive it and throw it in reverse to stop it.
- _____ _____ 7. It is OK to walk under the forks of a lift if it is blocking the aisle.
- _____ _____ 8. All forklifts have seatbelts on them.
- _____ _____ 9. Seatbelts must be worn at all times.
- _____ _____ 10. All Powered Industrial Trucks operate the same way, once you have been trained you can operate any of them.
- _____ _____ 11. I can push containers up to an operator working on a machine, as long as I am careful.
- _____ _____ 12. A forklift certification is only good for three years.
- _____ _____ 13. Pedestrians are always visible to the Powered Industrial Truck operator.

Circle the correct answer.

15. Refresher training must be done when:
- Observed operating in an unsafe manner
 - Assigned to use a different type lift
 - Evaluation indicates a problem
 - New environmental hazard introduced into the workplace
 - All of above
16. What conditions in the plant affects the handling of a forklift?
- Water
 - Oil
 - Dust
 - Holes in the floor
 - Narrow aisles
 - All of above
17. If the back of the lift raises up while you are picking up a load, you should:
- Set it back down
 - Ask a co-worker to sit on the back of the lift
 - Get a bigger lift
 - Try again
 - Take product off pallet
 - All of above
18. How many people are injured each year in forklift accidents?
- 2300
 - 5000
 - 10,000
 - 62,000
19. How many forklift related fatalities happen each year in the United States?
- 0 to 20
 - 60 to 70
 - 85 to 100
 - 100 to 135
 - 300 or more

20. Labels on forklifts indicate:
- a. Type of lift
 - b. Weight of Powered Industrial Truck
 - c. Capacity of lift
 - d. If attachments are okay to use
 - e. Load center
 - f. All of above