

Susan Harwood Training Grant Program
American Rescue Plan Act of 2021
FY 2021 Grant Recipients

Workplace Safety and Health Training on Infectious Diseases, Including COVID-19

Organization Name	City	State	Award
AFSCME Training and Education Institute	Washington	DC	$200,000
AFSCME Training and Education Institute proposes to provide 2 to 30 hours of COVID-19 training to 1,457 employers and workers in the health care and social assistance industries. The targeted audience includes limited-English speaking and at-risk workers. Training will include infectious disease recognition, abatement, and prevention. The organization plans to develop training materials from existing curricula. Training will be in English, Spanish, and Vietnamese.
AgriSafe Network	Peosta	IA	$200,000
AgriSafe Network proposes to provide 1 hour of COVID-19 training to 600 employers and workers in the agricultural industry. The targeted audience includes limited-English speaking workers. Training will include contact tracing to prevent COVID-19 transmission and zoonotic diseases in agriculture. The organization plans to develop new training materials. Training will be in English and Spanish.
American Road and Transportation Builders Association - TDF	Washington	DC	$200,000
American Road and Transportation Builders Association – TDF proposes to provide 4 hours of COVID-19 training to 520 employers and workers in the construction industry. The targeted audience is essential workers in the transportation industry with limited English, low/non-literate, temporary, and high-risk workers. Training will include prevention methods for COVID-19 exposures. The organization plans to revise existing training materials they developed over the past year. Training will be in English and Spanish.
AQUITY4All Co.	Bethesda	MD	$196,461
Aquty4All Co. proposes to provide 7.5 hours of COVID-19 training to 408 workers and develop train-the-trainer workshops for 36 individuals in the agriculture industry. The targeted audience includes limited-English proficient, non/low-literacy, minority, or other hard-to-reach workers. Training will include respiratory infection, COVID-19 symptoms, PPE, surface decontamination, handwashing, respiratory hygiene, and workplace modifications. The organization plans to use/revise existing CDC and DOL training materials, and may develop new training materials. Training will be in English and Spanish.
Brazilian Worker Center Inc.	Allston	MA	$159,500
Brazilian Worker Center proposes to provide 1.5 hours of training to 900 employers and workers and 8 hours of train-the-trainer instruction to 10 individuals on infectious diseases, including COVID-19. The target industries include construction, restaurant, domestic work, commercial cleaning, food preparation, and hospitality. The targeted audience includes at-risk, limited-English proficient workers. Training will include recognizing, preventing, and controlling transmission of infectious diseases. The organization plans to use existing training materials. Training will be in Spanish and Portuguese.
Chicagoland Construction Safety Council	Hillside	IL	$145,030
Chicagoland Construction Safety Council proposes to provide 4 hours of COVID-19 training to 300 employers and workers in the construction industry. The targeted audience is workers in high-hazard industries and small businesses with fewer than 250 workers who are at risk due to their age, minority status, or limited literacy. Training will include COVID-19 exposure control methods. The organization plans to revise existing training materials that have been produced by OSHA. Training will be in English.
East Carolina University	Greenville	NC	$200,000
East Carolina University proposes to provide 30 minute to 3 hour COVID-19 training sessions to 540 employers and workers in the construction industry. Training will meet the needs of the target audiences including youth, low/non-literate, temporary, minority, at-risk, and hard-to-reach workers. The organization plans to customize and use OSHA and CDC guidance materials. Training will be offered in-person and online in English.
El Paso County Community College	El Paso	TX	$200,000
El Paso County Community College proposes to provide 2 hours of COVID-19 training to 850 employers and workers in the construction and general industries. The target audience includes young, temporary, minority, low literacy, limited English speaking, or other hard to reach workers. Training will include infectious disease prevention. The organization plans to use existing training materials from OSHA and the CDC. Training will be conducted in English and Spanish.

Susan Harwood Training Grant Program
American Rescue Plan Act of 2021
FY 2021 Grant Recipients

Workplace Safety and Health Training on Infectious Diseases, Including COVID-19

Organization Name	City	State	Award
Farmworker Justice	Washington	DC	$200,000
Farmworker Justice proposes to provide 1 hour of COVID-19 training to 750 employers and workers and will include developing a 7.5 hour train-the-trainer program for 25 trainees in the farming industry. The targeted audience includes limited-English speakers. Training will include identifying COVID-19, preventive measures, and workers' rights. The organization plans to use existing training materials from OSHA, CDC, and materials developed by consortium partners. Training will be in English, Spanish, and indigenous languages.
Florida International University Board of Trustees, The	Miami	FL	$200,000
Florida International University proposes to provide 3 hours of COVID-19 training to 500 employers and workers in the construction and general industries. The targeted audience includes limited-English speaking, youth, and hard-to-reach workers. Training will include infectious diseases/COVID-19, whistleblower laws, and complaint. The organization plans to revise existing training materials. Training will be in English and Spanish.
Georgia Tech Research Corporation	Atlanta	GA	$181,358
The Georgia Tech Research Corporation proposes to provide 1 hour and 6.5 hour COVID-19 training sessions to 475 employers and workers in the long-term healthcare and mortuary industries. Training will focus on infectious disease awareness and prevention. Existing training materials will be used. The training will be in English and Spanish.
International Association of Machinists Corporation for Re-Employment and Safety Training	Upper Marlboro	MD	$100,000
International Association of Machinists, Corporation for Re-Employment and Safety Training (IAM CREST) proposes to provide 2 hours of COVID-19 training to 250 employers and workers, and 24 hours of training to 13 train-the-trainers in the small business industry. Target audiences include workers providing environmental, nursing, maintenance, and dietary/nutritional services. Training will include COVID-19 mitigation and awareness. The organization plans to use existing training materials. Training will be in English.
IUPAT Finishing Trades Institute	Hanover	MD	$196,400
IUPAT Finishing Trades Institute proposes to provide 14-21 hours of COVID-19 training to 465 employers and workers in the construction trades industry. The targeted audience includes IUPAT members. Training will include conducting risk assessments, developing pandemic plans, and pandemic resiliency. The organization plans to revise existing training materials with current infectious disease and COVID-19 information. Training will be in English and Spanish.
Kern County Builders Exchange	Bakersfield	CA	$199,980
Kern County Builders Exchange proposes to provide 1 and 4-hour sessions of COVID-19 training to 1,160 employers and workers in the construction, agricultural, and defense contracting industries. The targeted audience includes new businesses, youth, and temporary workers in high-hazard occupations. Training will include mitigating, monitoring, and preventing the spread of COVID-19 and other infectious diseases in the workplace. The organization plans to utilize existing training materials they previously developed. Training will be in English and Spanish.
Latino Worker Safety Center	Hillside	IL	$200,000
Latino Worker Safety Center proposes to provide 1 or 4 hours of COVID-19 training to 650 employers and workers in the construction and general industries. The targeted audience includes small businesses, limited-English speaking, temporary, and at-risk workers. Training includes chemical/respiratory safety and training for essential workers and those returning to work. The organization plans to revise current existing training materials. Training will be in English, Spanish, Chinese, Mandarin, Polish, Arabic, and Cantonese.
Millersville University of Pennsylvania	Millersville	PA	$193,263
Millersville University of Pennsylvania proposes to provide 2 to 7 hours of COVID-19 training to 800 employers and workers in the long-term care facilities industry. The targeted audience includes small businesses and limited-English speaking and youth workers. Training will include methods to manage exposure to COVID-19. The organization plans to use existing OSHA training materials from their previous Susan Harwood grant. Training will be in English and Spanish.

Susan Harwood Training Grant Program
American Rescue Plan Act of 2021
FY 2021 Grant Recipients

Workplace Safety and Health Training on Infectious Diseases, Including COVID-19

Organization Name	City	State	Award
New Jersey State AFL-CIO, Community Services Agency Inc.	Trenton	NJ	$200,000
New Jersey State AFL-CIO, Community Services Agency proposes to provide 1 to 4 hours of COVID-19 training to 1,010 employers and workers in manufacturing, food manufacturing, wholesale and retail grocery, food service, retail, electrical, and critical infrastructure construction industries. The targeted audience includes essential, temporary, limited-English proficient, young, and other at-risk workers in high-hazard/high fatality industries. Training will include PPE, personal hygiene, and housekeeping. The organization plans to revise existing materials and will include a train the trainer training. Training will be in English and Spanish
New Mexico Caregivers Coalition	Bernalillo	NM	$93,754
New Mexico Caregivers Coalition proposes to provide 3-hour training sessions on infectious diseases and COVID-19 to 400 employers and workers in the long-term care, domestic care, and home healthcare industries. The targeted audience includes temporary workers, workers of color, non/low-literacy, limited-English speaking, domestic, and other hard-to-reach workers. Training will include infection cycle, transmission, wearing PPE and will address COVID-19, Hepatitis A and B, HIV, Ebola, H1-N1, and Avian Flu. The organization plans to revise existing training materials. Training will be in English.
Northampton County Area Community College	Bethlehem	PA	$151,661
Northampton County Area Community College proposes to provide 3.5 to 4 hours of COVID-19 training to 700 employers and workers in the healthcare industry. The targeted audience includes small businesses, limited-English speaking, low/non-literate, youth, and at-risk workers. Training will include OSHA's emergency temporary standard. The organization plans to existing training materials. Training will be in English.
Northern Illinois University	DeKalb	IL	$199,550
Northern Illinois University proposes to provide 1.5 and 4 hour COVID-19 training to 500 employers and workers in the high risk industries. The targeted audiences include limited-English speaking, low/non-literate, youth, temporary, minority, and at-risk workers. Training will include COVID-19, Ebola, hepatitis, influenzas, norovirus, and tuberculosis. The organization plans to use existing training developed materials by NIU, OSHA, CDC, and develop new materials. Training will be in English.
Philadelphia Area Project on Occupational Safety and Health	Philadelphia	PA	$144,259
Philadelphia Area Project on Occupational Safety and Health proposes to provide 2.5 hours of COVID-19 training to 300 employers and workers in the small business industry. The targeted audience includes small businesses, limited-English speaking, low/non-literate, youth, temporary, and hard-to-reach workers. The organization plans to use existing OSHA training materials. Training will be in English and Spanish.
Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, RBHS-SPH	Piscataway	NJ	$172,489
Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, RBHS-SPH proposes to provide 4 and 7.5 hours of training on COVID-19 to 465 employers and workers in the building management/custodial and healthcare industries. The targeted audience includes workers from high-hazard industries, limited-English speaking, small businesses, and temporary workers. Training will include respiratory protection for airborne diseases/contaminants and managing a respiratory program for airborne infectious diseases. The organization plans to use and revise existing training materials. Training will be in English and Spanish.
Sustainable Workplace Alliance, The	Lake Wales	FL	$200,000
The Sustainable Workplace Alliance proposes to provide 1 to 4 hours of training to 1,100 workers in workplace safety and health training on infectious diseases, including COVID-19 training in the healthcare industry. The targeted audience includes limited-English proficient, youth, minority, and other hard-to-reach workers. Training will emphasize risk assessment, universal controls, engineering, administrative, work practice, and personal protective equipment. The organization plans to use existing training materials and material by the NIEHS Worker Training Program. Training will be in English and Spanish.

Susan Harwood Training Grant Program
American Rescue Plan Act of 2021
FY 2021 Grant Recipients

Workplace Safety and Health Training on Infectious Diseases, Including COVID-19

Organization Name	City	State	Award
Texas State University	San Marcos	TX	$200,000
Texas State University proposes to provide 3-hour COVID-19 training to 700 workers in workplace safety and health training on infectious diseases, including COVID-19 training in the hospitality, general, and construction industries. The targeted audience includes small businesses, youth, hard-to-reach, limited-English, and temporary workers. Training will include detection and exposure prevention related to contact, droplet, and airborne infectious diseases, including COVID-19. The organization plans to use existing training materials and material from the CDC. Training will be in English and Spanish.
Timber Products Manufacturers, Inc.	Spokane	WA	$160,000
Timber Products Manufacturers, Inc. proposes to provide 1.5-hour and 3-hour COVID-19 training sessions to 690 employers and workers in the wood products industry. The target audience includes workers of color and young, hard-to-reach, and temporary workers. Training will include identifying, preventing, and controlling COVID-19. Organization plans to use existing training materials from OSHA and the CDC. Training will be in English.
TWIN - Training to Work an Industry Niche	Charlotte	NC	$200,000
Training to Work an Industry Niche (TWIN) proposes to provide 2 hours of COVID-19 training to 400 employers and workers in the construction and community based industries. The target audience includes small businesses, youth workers, and limited-English speaking workers. Training will include biological hazards and infectious disease transmission, prevention and control. The organization plans to use existing training materials from OSHA, CDC, and NIEHS. Training will be in English.
University of Alabama, The	Tuscaloosa	AL	$191,304
The University of Alabama proposes to provide 3 to 5 hours of infectious disease training, including COVID-19, to 500 employers and workers in the general, construction, and maritime industries. The target audience includes youth, limited-English, low/non-literate, and temporary workers. The training topics include causes, symptoms, diagnoses, treatments, and hazard identification and prevention. The training materials will include materials created by previous Harwood grantees. Training will be in English and Spanish.
University of California - Berkeley, The Regents of the	Berkeley	CA	$200,000
The Regents of the University of California propose to provide 1.5 to 3 hours of COVID-19 training to 530 employers and workers in the food service, day labor, and residential/home care industries. The target audience includes workers of color, low/non-literate, youth, and limited-English speaking workers. Training will include bloodborne pathogens, emergency prevention, whistleblower protection, and airborne transmissible disease. The organization plans to use existing training materials. Training will be in English, Spanish, Chinese, and Tagalog.
University of Cincinnati	Cincinnati	OH	$200,000
University of Cincinnati proposes to provide 3 hours of COVID-19 training to 450 employers and workers in the small businesses. The target audience includes temporary, minority, and at-risk (high-hazard/high fatality) workers. Training will include identifying and preventing infectious diseases. The organization plans to use existing training materials developed by the NIH, NIEHS, OSHA, and CDC. Training will be in English and Spanish.
University of Illinois, Board of Trustees of the	Champaign	IL	$200,000
The University of Illinois at Champaign proposes to provide 1 to 4 hours of infectious disease training, including COVID-19 to 490 employers and workers in the agriculture and grain handling industry. The audience is small businesses at high risk of infectious disease, including COVID-19 exposure and fatalities, including youth, temporary, limited-English proficient, Native Americans, low-literacy, and other hard-to-reach workers. They plan to use training materials from OSHA, CDC, and the University of Nebraska Medical Center. They may develop new materials for infectious disease plans and zoonotic diseases. Training will be in English and Spanish.
University of Southern Maine	Portland	ME	$195,650
The University of Southern Maine proposes to provide 1.5 hours of web-based infectious disease training, including COVID-19, to 2,000 workers in the health and human services industry. The target audience includes EMS personnel, childcare, direct service, and behavioral health workers in community settings. Training includes proper selection, use, reuse, and disposal of PPE, hand hygiene, workplace cleaning, and disinfection. Training will be in English.

Susan Harwood Training Grant Program
American Rescue Plan Act of 2021
FY 2021 Grant Recipients

Workplace Safety and Health Training on Infectious Diseases, Including COVID-19

Organization Name	City	State	Award
University of Texas at Arlington, The	Arlington	TX	$200,000
The University of Texas at Arlington proposes to provide 3 to 7 hours of COVID-19 training to 420 employers and workers in the construction industry. The target audience includes limited-English proficiency workers in the construction industry. Training will include infectious diseases encountered in the construction industry including Dengue and Legionellosis. The organization plans to use existing training materials they developed under previous Harwood grants. Training will be in English and Spanish.
University of Texas at El Paso, The	El Paso	TX	$193,160
The University of Texas at El Paso proposes to provide 1.5 hours of COVID-19 training to 1,200 employers and workers in the construction and general industries. The target audience includes limited-English speaking workers. The organization plans to use existing training materials developed by OSHA, NIH, and the CDC. Training will be in English and Spanish.
University of Texas at Tyler	Tyler	TX	$200,000
University of Texas at Tyler proposes to provide 4 hours of COVID-19 training to 400 employers and workers in healthcare, manufacturing, and food processing industries. The target audience includes underserved employees in rural areas. Training will include infectious disease, including COVID-19 hazards and development of workplace pandemic plans. The organization plans to use existing training materials from previous Harwood grantees, OSHA, NIOSH, and CDC. Training will be in English and Spanish.
Washington On-Site Sewage Association	Puyallup	WA	$186,502
Washington On-Site Sewage Association proposes to provide 4 hours of infectious disease training, including COVID-19, to 405 employers and workers in the plumbing and on-site de-centralized wastewater industries. The target audience includes limited-English proficiency workers, non/low-literacy, minority, and other hard-to-reach workers. Training will include infectious disease exposures while handling, transferring, and storing raw untreated human waste; hazard recognition and mitigation; and appropriate PPE. The organization plans to use existing training materials. Training will be in English.
Western New York Council on Occupational Safety and Health	Buffalo	NY	$196,969
Western New York Council on Occupational Safety and Health proposes to provide 2 and 6 hours of COVID-19 training to 845 employers and workers in the healthcare, hospitality/restaurant, retail, and service industries. The target audience includes limited-English speaking, low/non-literate, youth, temporary, and minority workers. Training will include personal protective equipment. The organization plans to use existing training materials from OSHA and CDC. Training will be in English, Spanish, Burmese, Nepali, Karen, and Arabic.
Work Environment Council of New Jersey, Inc.	Trenton	NJ	$85,000
Work Environment Council of New Jersey, Inc. proposes to provide between 1 and 4 hours of COVID-19 training to 227 employers and workers in the retail, warehousing, logistics, manufacturing, restaurant, transportation, and food service industries. The target audience includes temporary, minority, youth, and other hard-to reach workers. Training will include OSHA's guidance on mitigating/preventing the spread of COVID-19. The organization plans to use existing training materials and develop new training materials. Training will be in English and Spanish.			