

In the Name and by the Authority of
THE STATE OF OHIO

WHEREAS, Ohio businesses rely on a well-educated and highly trained workforce to remain competitive in an increasingly global economy; and

WHEREAS, each day, over 5.2 million Ohioans go to work to support their families and improve their communities; and

WHEREAS, more than 100 Ohio workers tragically lose their lives on the job each year and thousands of others face time off due to injury or illness; and

WHEREAS, Workers' Memorial Day was created in 1989 in honor of the establishment of the Occupational Safety and Health Administration in 1971; and

WHEREAS, Workers' Memorial Day is recognized throughout the world to remember those who have been killed or injured as a result of their work and to highlight the preventable nature of most workplace injuries; and

WHEREAS, we remember the dedicated workers who have been killed or injured on the job and encourage employers to remain vigilant about workplace safety; and

NOW, THEREFORE, We, Mike DeWine and Jon Husted, Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the State of Ohio, do hereby recognize

WORKERS' MEMORIAL DAY

on this 28th day of April 2023.

Mike DeWine
Governor

Jon Husted
