Federal-State Unemployment Compensation Program: Unemployment Insurance Program Letters Interpreting Federal Unemployment Insurance Law

The Employment and Training Administration interprets Federal law requirements pertaining to unemployment compensation as part of its role in the administration of the Federal-State unemployment compensation program. These interpretations are issued in Unemployment Insurance Program Letters (UIPLs) to the State Employment Security Agencies (SESAs). The UIPLs described below are published in the Federal Register in order to inform the public.

UIPL 05-97

The Department's interpretation of several Federal requirements in a remote claimstaking environment was issued in UIPL 35-95, dated June 28, 1995 (published at 60 FR 55604, 11/1/96). Additional questions have been raised about the impact of remote initial claimstaking procedures on claims filed under the Interstate Arrangement for Combining Employment and Wages, the Unemployment Compensation for Ex-Servicemembers program, and the Extended Benefits program. Questions have also been raised regarding how States can comply with the requirement that non-citizen claimants present documentation of a satisfactory immigration status in a remote claimstaking environment. This UIPL contains information on each of these areas.

UIPL 16-97

This UIPL is being issued to correct several technical errors which the Department of Labor has identified in UIPLs 45-92, 17-95, 30-96, and 37-96. None of the changes make any change to the Department's interpretation of Federal law.

Date: December 2, 1996.

Directive: Unemployment Insurance Program Letter No. 05-97

To: All State Employment Security Agencies
 From: Mary Ann Wyrsh, Director,
 Unemployment Insurance Service
 Subject: The Department of Labor's Position on Issues and Concerns Associated With the Utilization of Telephone and Other Electronic Methods of Claimstaking in the Unemployment Insurance (UI) Program.

1. Purpose. To advise State Employment Security Agencies (SESAs) of the Department's interpretation of Federal statutes and regulations relating to telephone and other electronic methods of claimstaking.

2. References. Section 1137, Social Security Act (SSA); Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act; ETA Handbooks Nos. 384, 392, and 399; 20 CFR 614; 20 CFR 616; and Unemployment Insurance Program Letter (UIPL) No. 35-95.

3. Background. The Department's interpretation of several Federal requirements in a remote claimstaking environment was issued in UIPL No. 35-95, dated June 28, 1995. However, additional questions have been raised about the impact of remote initial claimstaking procedures on claims filed under the Interstate Arrangement for Combining Employment and Wages (Combined Wage Claims), the Unemployment Compensation for Ex-Servicemembers (UCX) program and the Extended Benefits program. Questions also have been raised regarding how States can comply with the requirement that non-citizen claimants present documentation of a satisfactory immigration status in a remote claimstaking environment. This directive includes information on each of these areas.

4. Presentation of Alien Documentation. Section 1137(d)(2), SSA, provides the following:

If such an individual is not a citizen or national of the United States, there must be presented either—

(A) Alien registration documentation or other proof of immigration registration from the Immigration and Naturalization Service that contains the individual's alien admission number or alien file number * * *, or

(B) such other documents as the State determines constitutes reasonable evidence indicating a satisfactory immigration status.

UIPL No. 35-95, Section 3.A.(5) stated that "neither sections 1137(d)(2)(A) or (B), SSA, may be satisfied by information obtained by telephone (orally or IVR/VRS) or entry via a computer keyboard or touchscreen."

Upon reconsideration, the Department concludes that the requirement to present documentation from the Immigration and
