Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption 97-41 permits an employee benefit plan to purchase shares of one or more open-end management investment companies (Mutual Fund) registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and which also serves as a fiduciary of the plan, in exchange for plan assets transferred in-kind to the Mutual Fund from a collective investment fund (CIF) maintained by the bank or plan adviser, where the bank or plan adviser is both the adviser to the Mutual Fund and a fiduciary of the plan. The transfer must be in connection with a complete withdrawal of a plan's assets from the CIF. By requiring that the bank give to an independent fiduciary notice of the in-kind transfer, full written disclosure of the information concerning the Mutual Fund company, and any ongoing disclosures, this ICR insures that the exemption is not abused, the rights of the participants and beneficiaries are protected, and that compliance with the exemption's conditions is taking place.
