

View API Token

Complete either of the following options to view the API Token associated with your ITA account for use in electronically transmitting data. Note: For additional information, place cursor over the information icon  .

1. Select the “View Your API Token” button in the “For Batch Data Transmission” section on the “Injury Tracking Application” screen. The API Token associated with your account displays. From this page, you may also copy token or generate a new token.
2. Select the “See API Token” option from the dropdown “Navigation Menu”. The API Token associated with your account displays. From this page, you may also copy token or generate a new token.