Alliances:

ARTBA- National Work Zone Safety Information Clearinghouse

CPWR-The Center for Construction Research and Training:

CPWR is America's leading nonprofit dedicated to reducing occupational injuries, illnesses and fatalities in the construction industry. Through our research, training, and service programs, we serve the industry nationwide by collaborating with key partners, including workers, contractors, project owners, health and safety professionals, researchers, key government agencies, unions, and associations.

Regional Hispanic Contractors Association:

The RHCA is a 501(c)(6) nonprofit trade association serving small and minority businesses and professionals in the architectural, engineering, and construction industry across Texas. RHCA provides education, workforce development, advocacy, and business development opportunities to strengthen contractors and advance safety, capacity, and economic growth in the construction industry. The Association works closely with public agencies, private sector partners, and community stakeholders to promote industry best practices and workforce advancement.

Department of Labor Agencies:

Disability Employment Policy (ODEP):

ODEP's mission is to develop and influence policies and practices that increase the number and quality of employment opportunities for people with disabilities. To fulfill this mission, ODEP promotes the adoption and implementation of ODEP policy strategies and effective practices, meaning those that ODEP has developed and/or validated, that will impact the employment of people with disabilities. ODEP's approach is to drive systems and practice changes by disseminating ODEP policy strategies and effective practices, sharing information and providing technical assistance to government agencies, service providers and non-governmental entities, as well as public and private employers.

Occupational Safety and Health Administration:

OSHA's mission is to assure America's workers have safe and healthful working conditions free from unlawful retaliation. OSHA carries out its mission by setting and enforcing standards; enforcing anti-retaliation provisions of the OSH Act and other federal whistleblower laws; providing and supporting training, outreach, education, and assistance; and working collaboratively with our state OSHA programs as well as ensuring that they are at least as effective as federal OSHA, furthering a national system of worker safety and health protections.
